THE SPIRIT OF '77

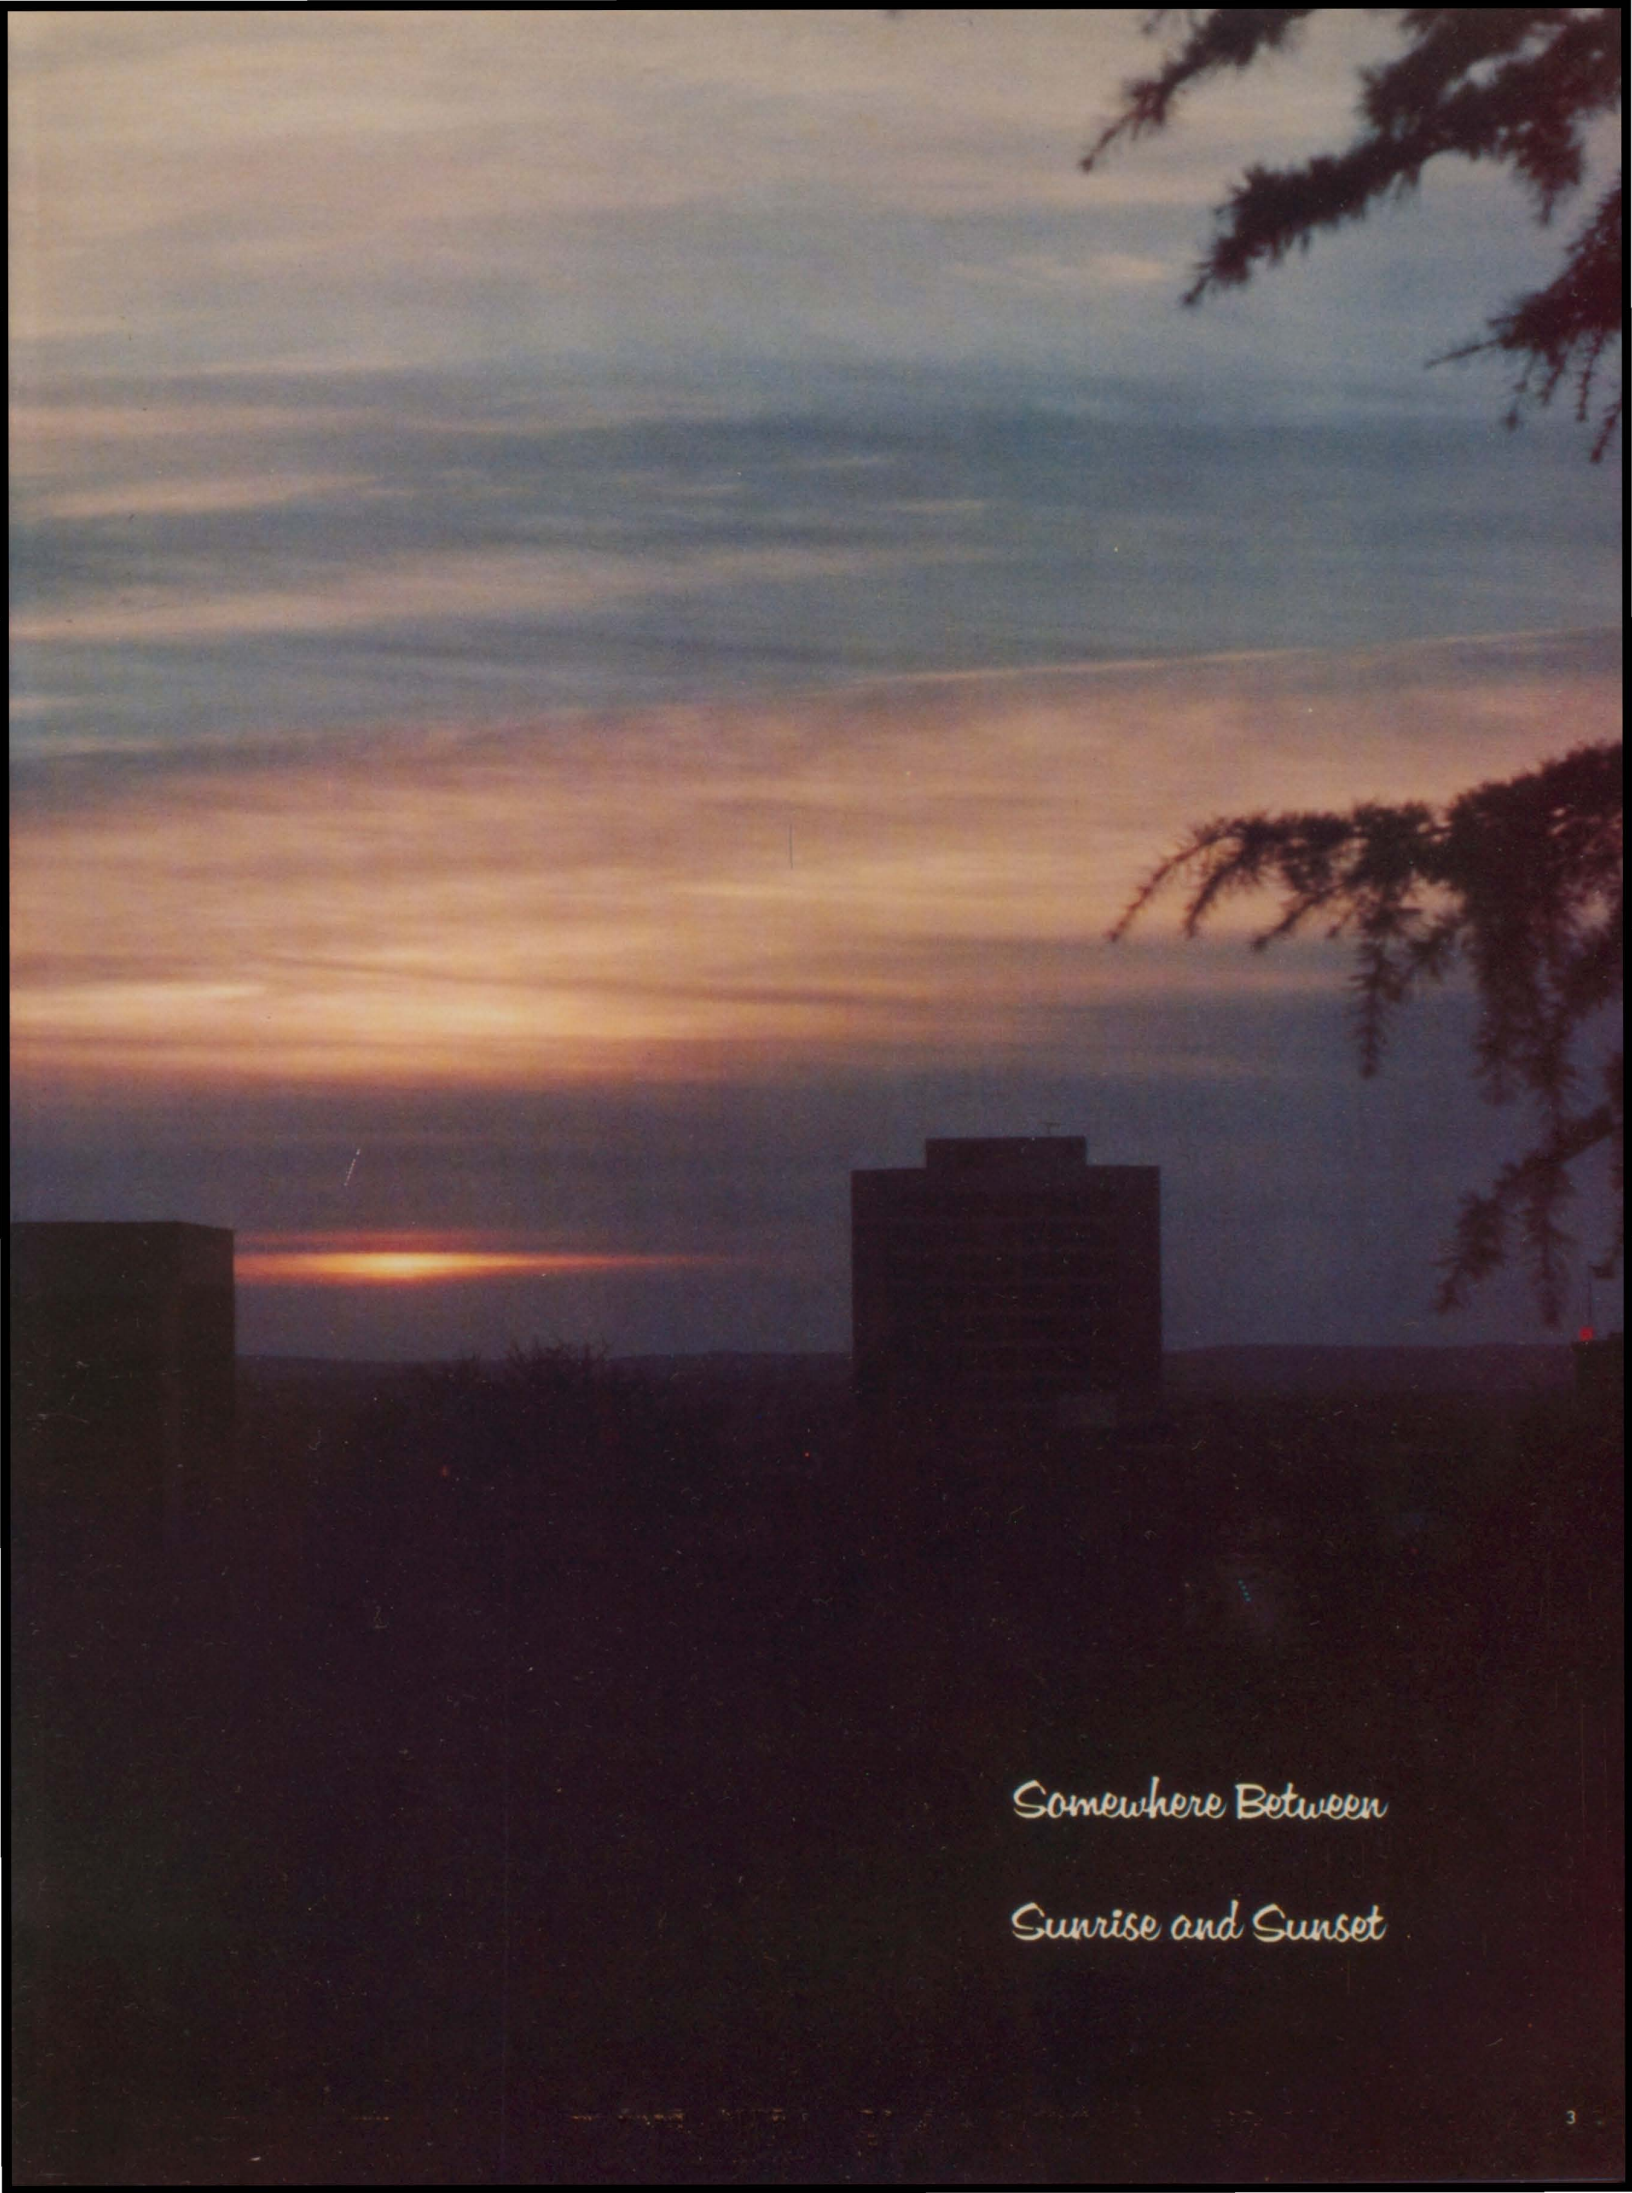

SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL

Macon, Georgia

Volume VII

Co-Editors: Cheryl Johnson
Gail Lineberger

GOOD MORNING, Yesterday!
You Wake Up and Find That Time Has Slipped Away

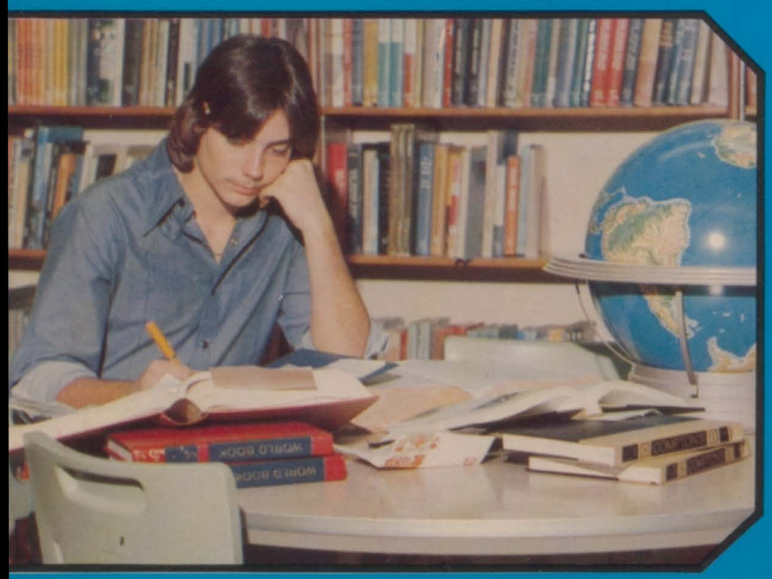

Somewhere Between

Sunrise and Sunset

AND SUDDENLY It's Hard to Find

The MEMORIES You Left Behind

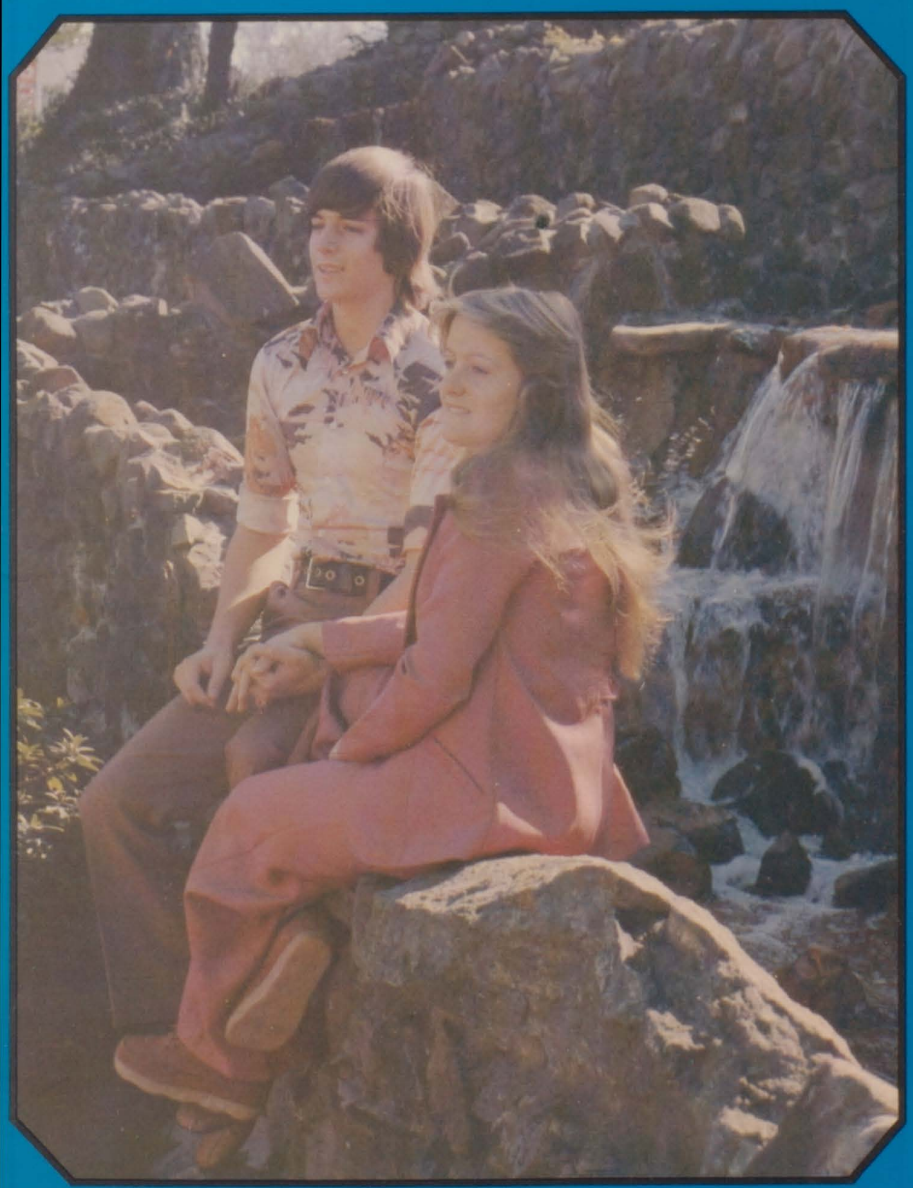

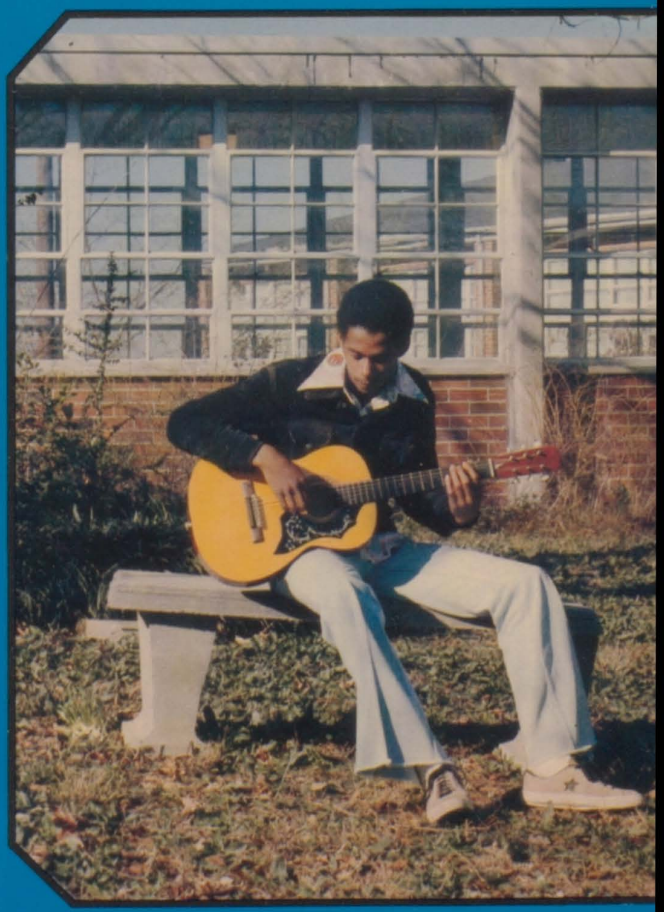

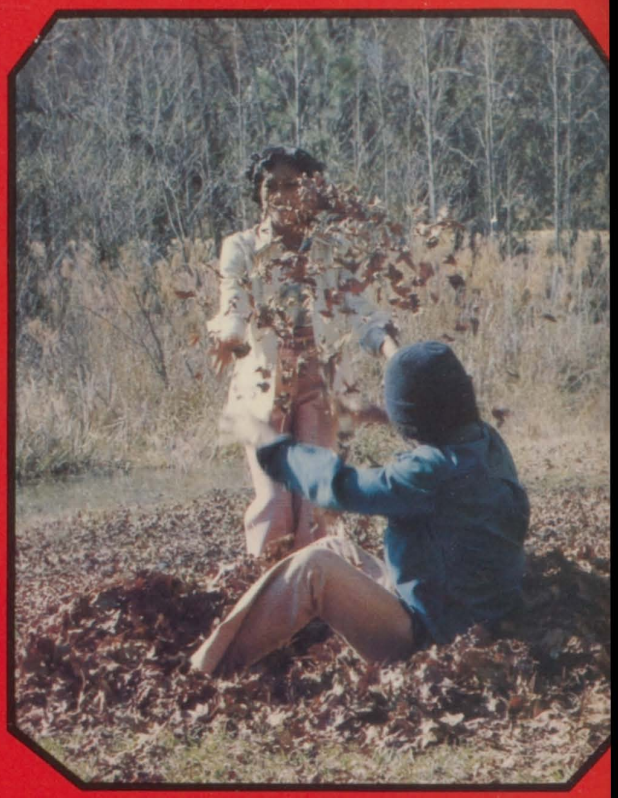

"MEMORIES — Perform the Impossible for Man; They Hold Together Past and Present."

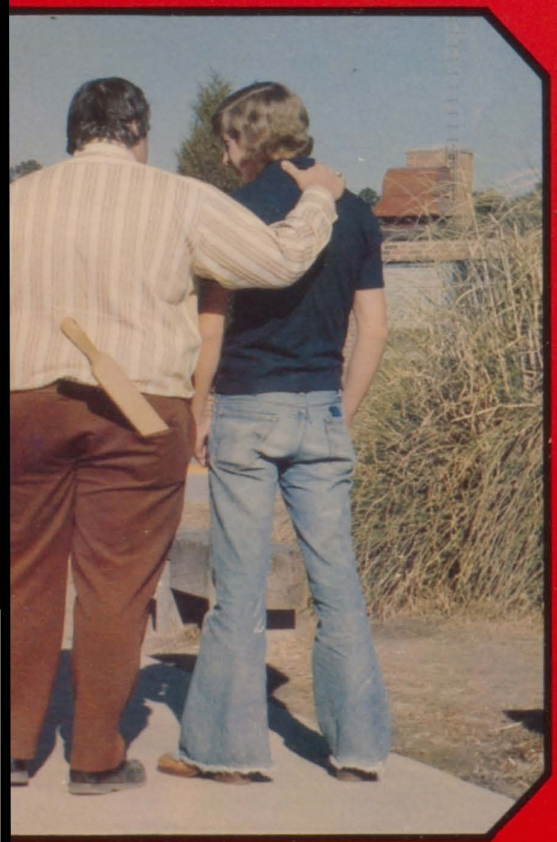

"Remember the Times

of Your Life . . ."

The Times Filled With Laughter, the Shadows of Misty Yester-Year — The Good Times, the Bad Times, the Joy, the Sorrow, and All Others in Between.

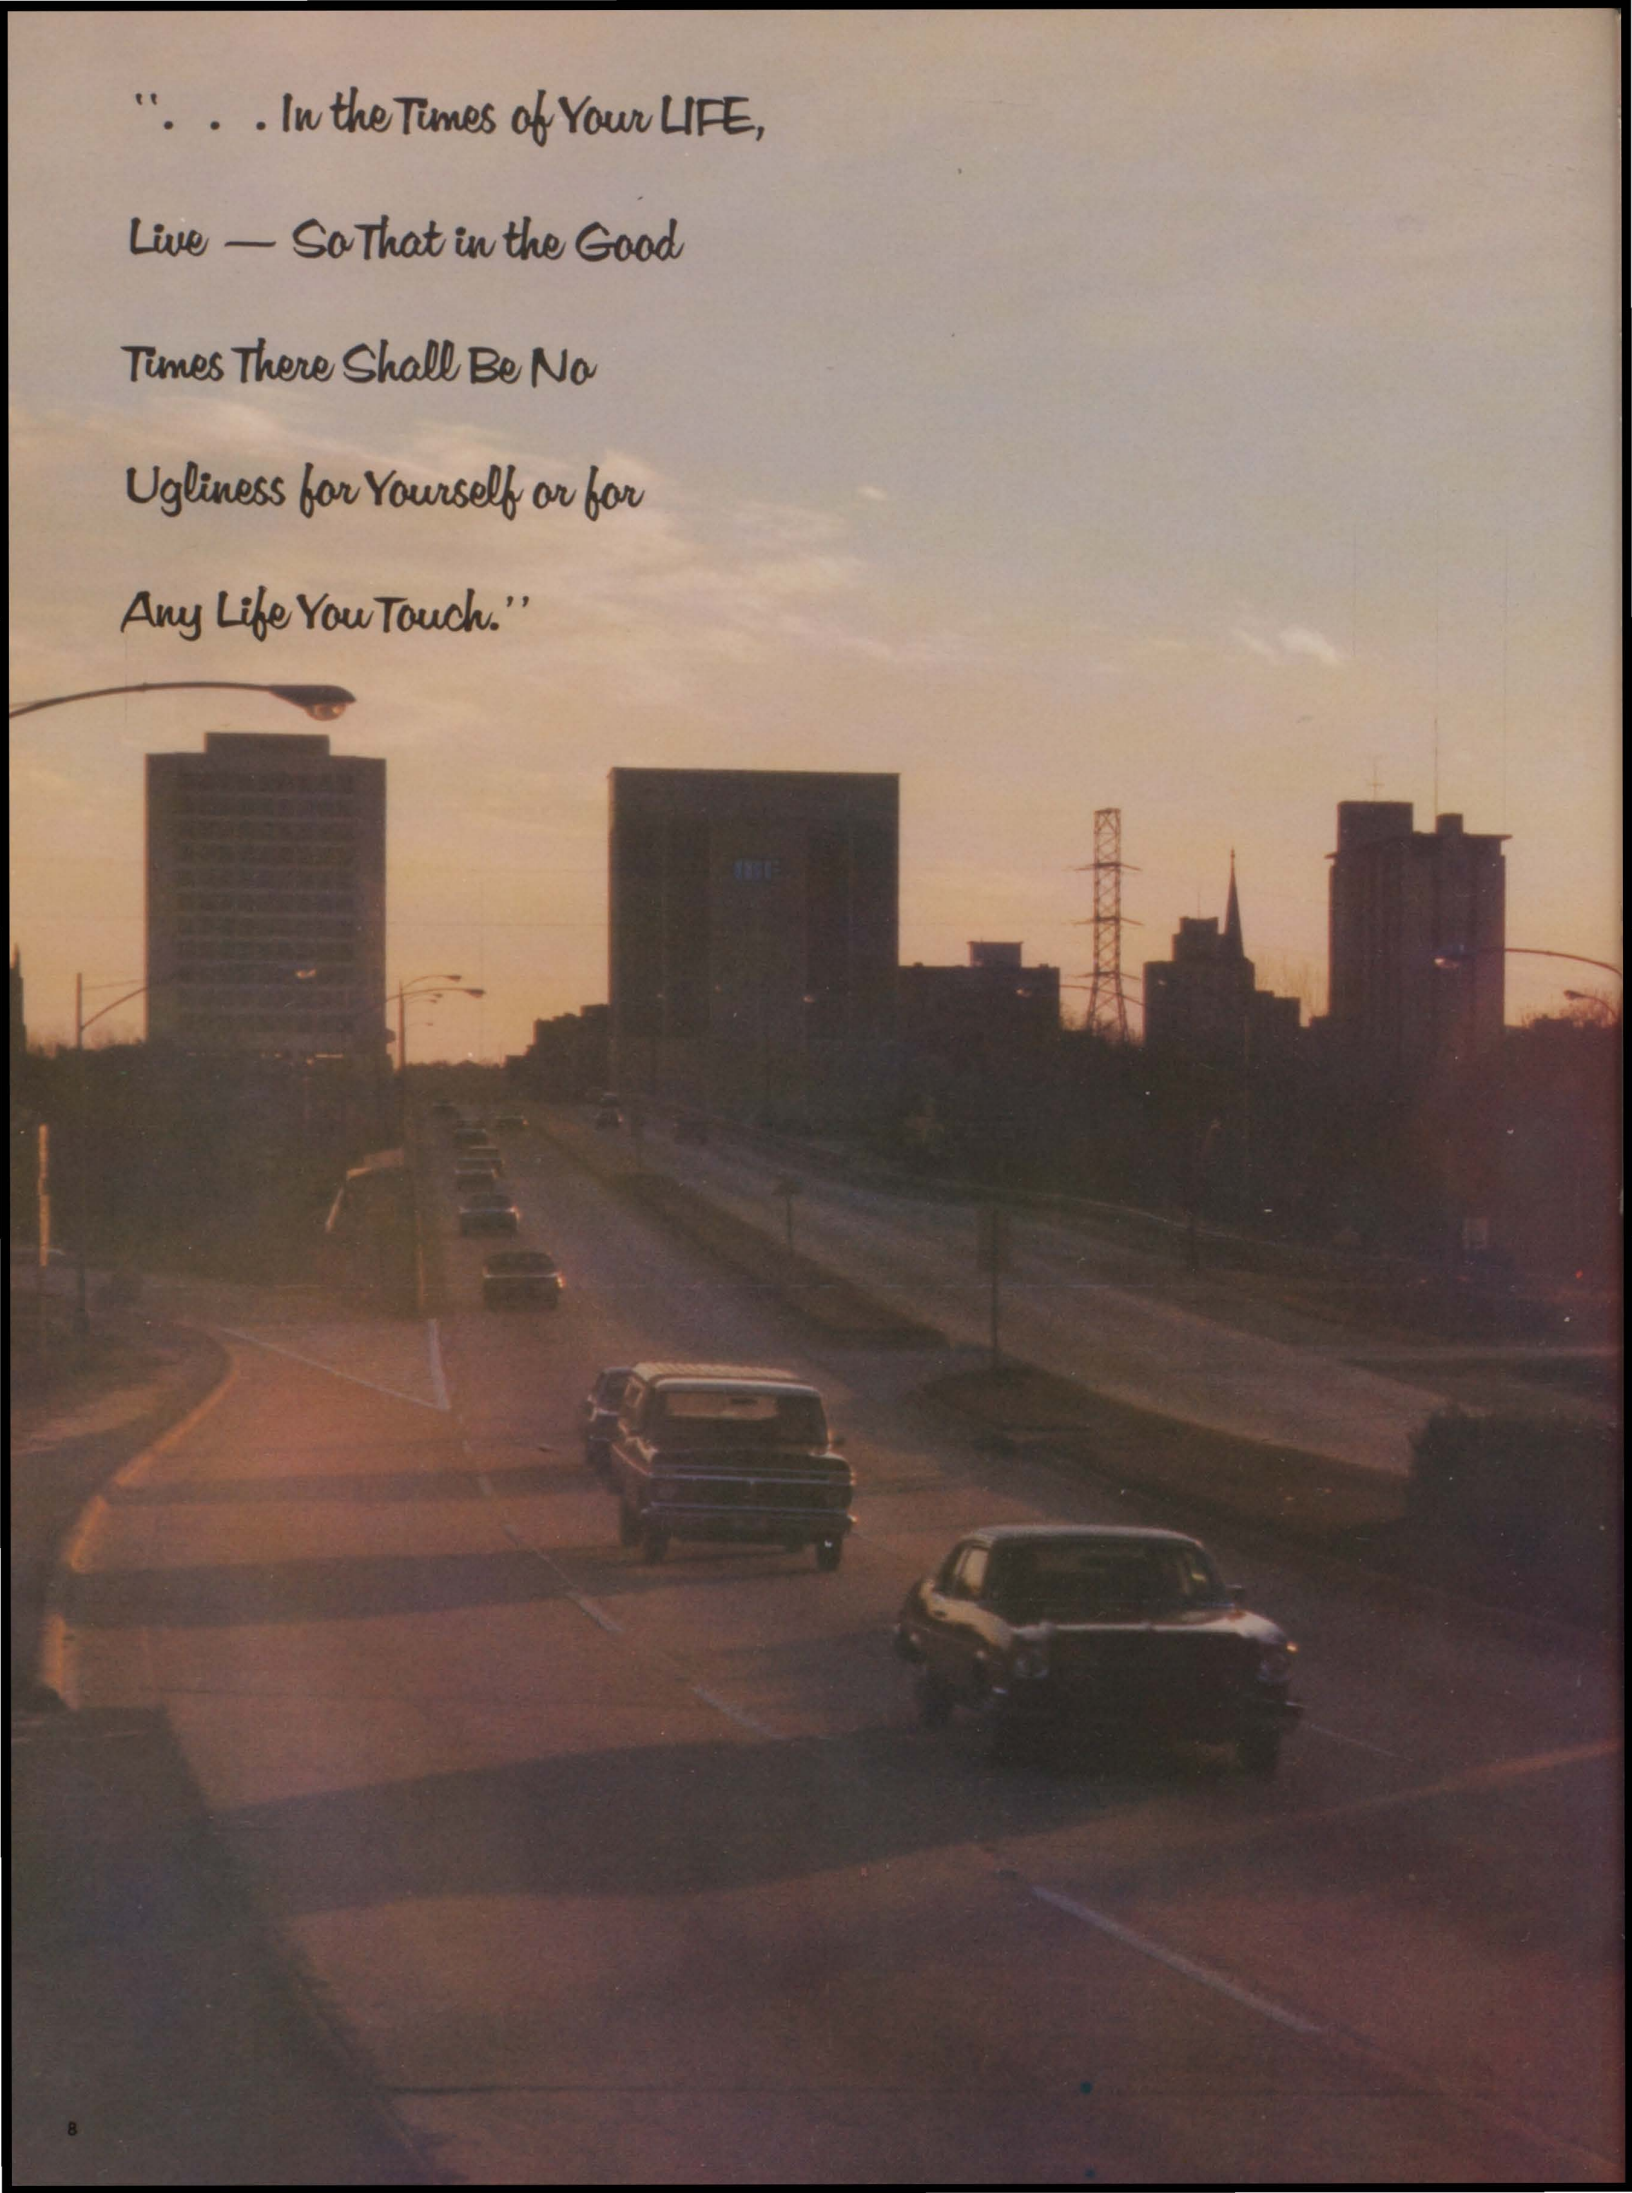

". . . In the Times of Your LIFE,

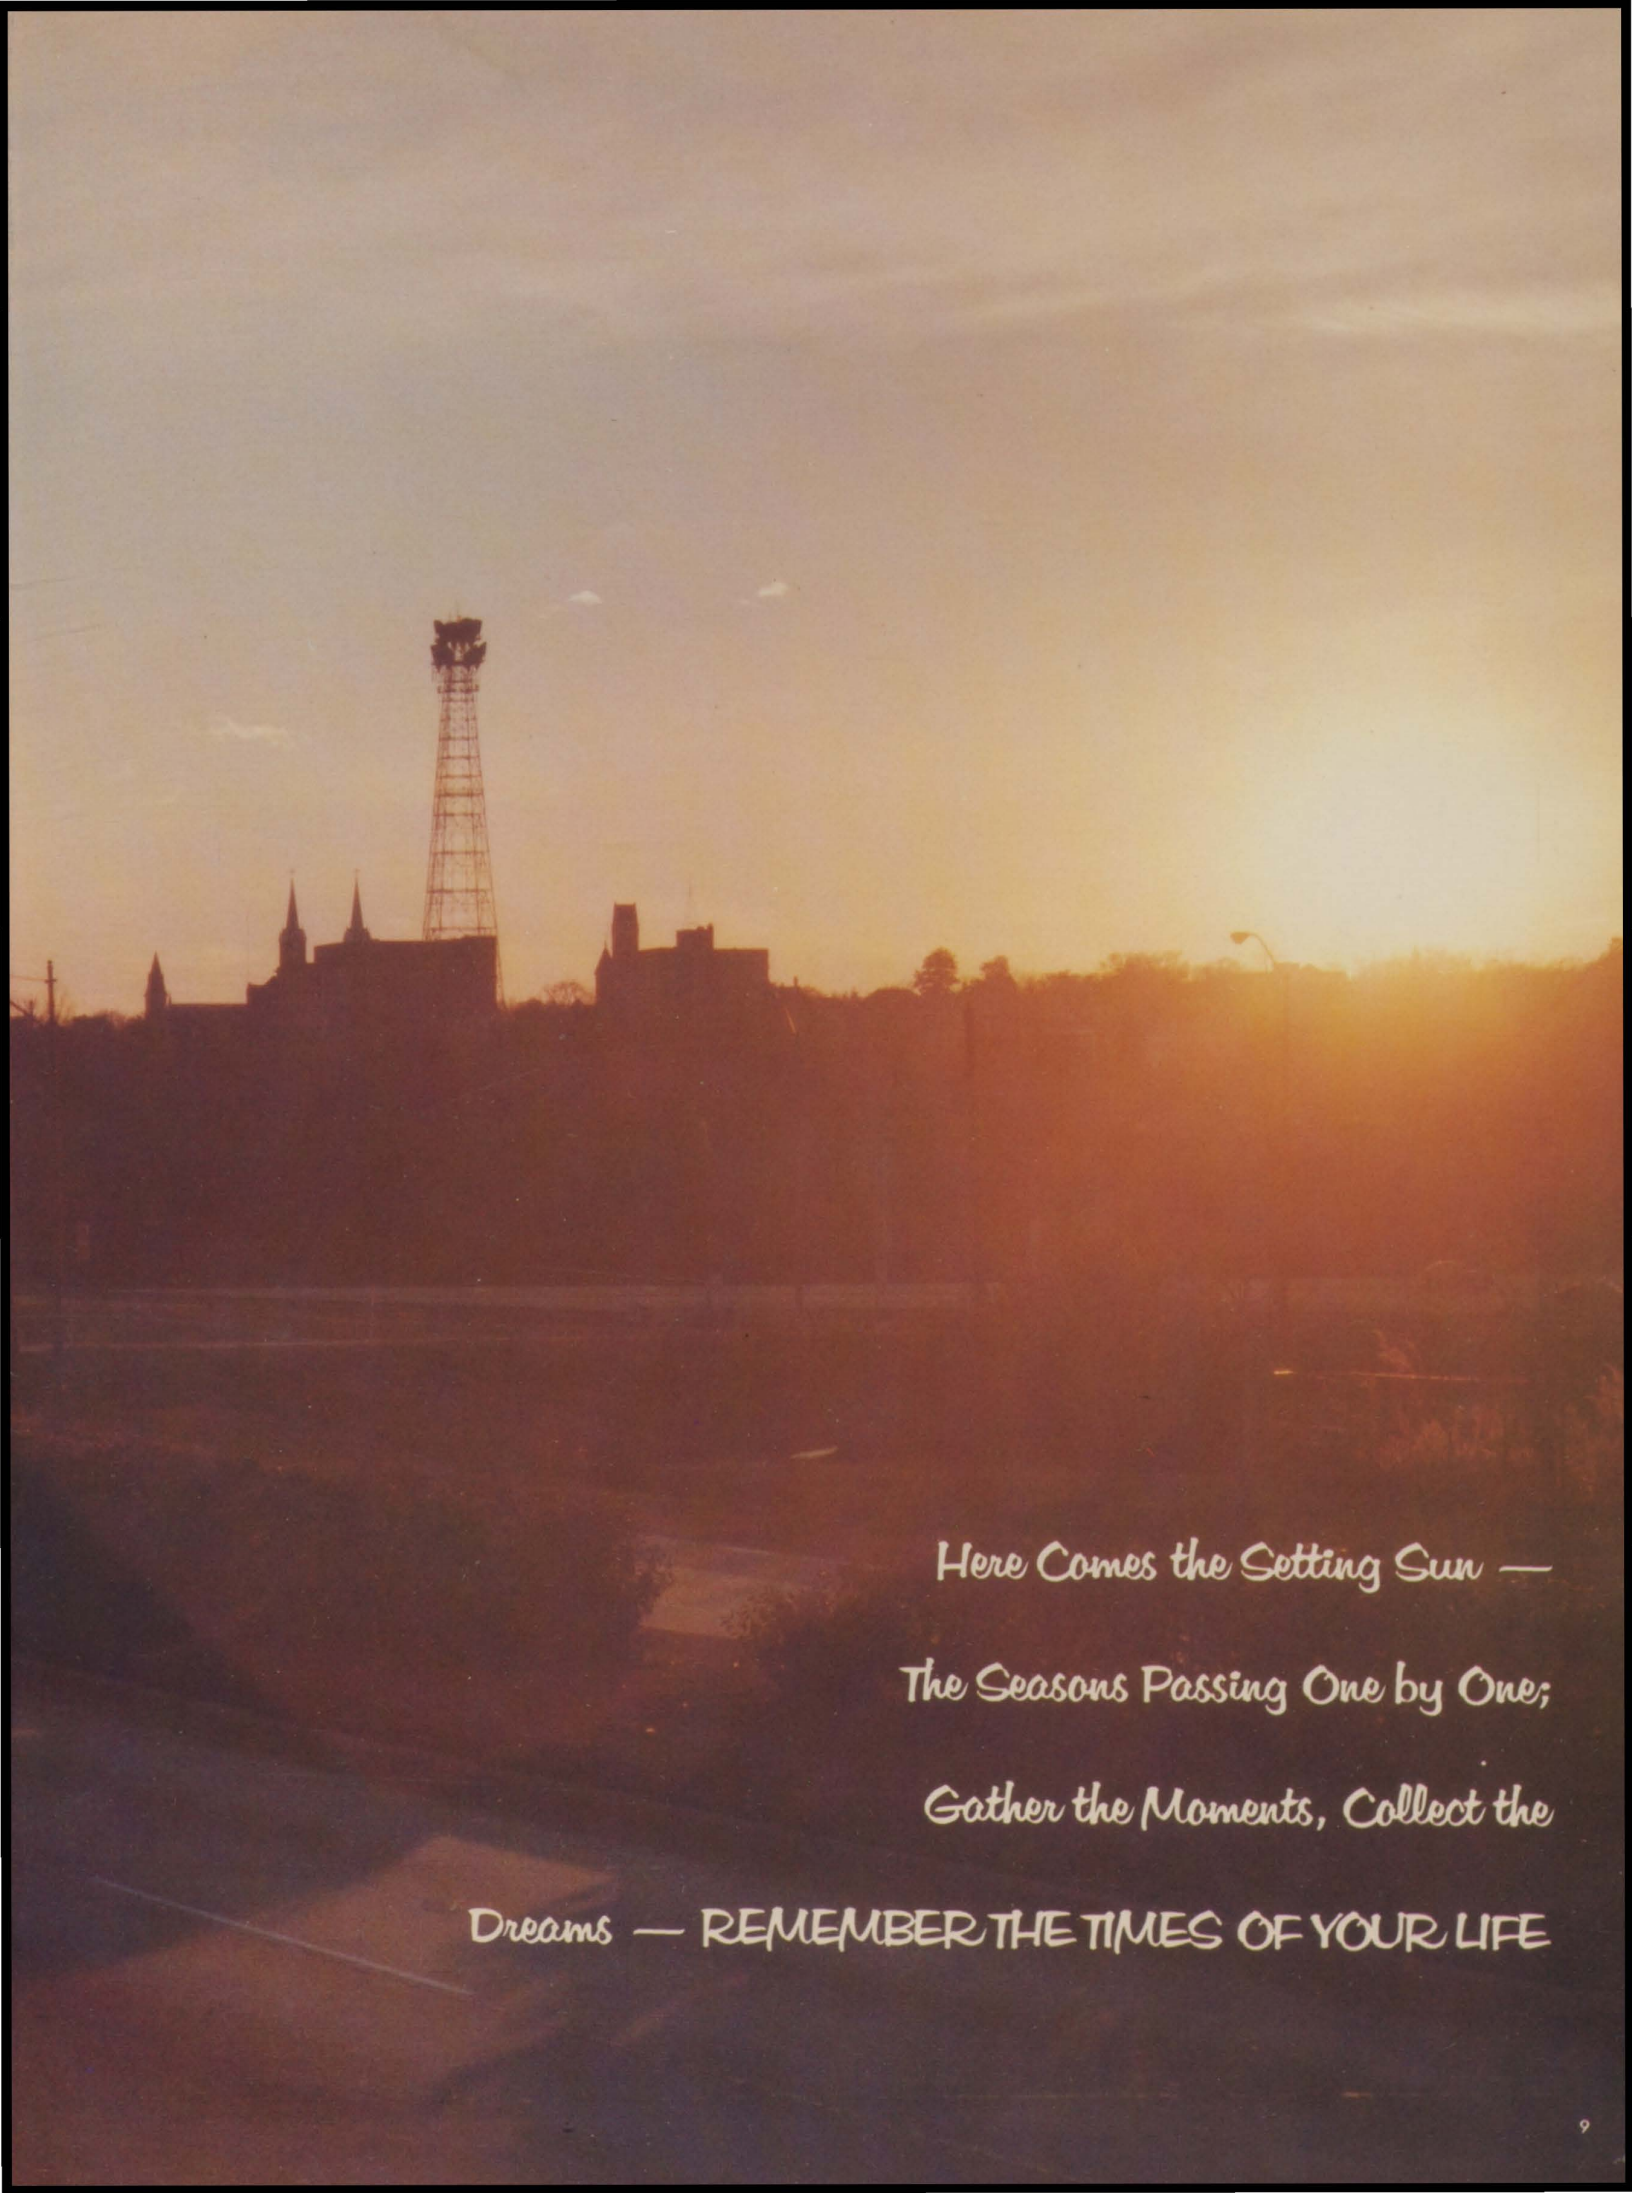

Live — So That in the Good

Times There Shall Be No

Ugliness for Yourself or for Any Life You Touch."

Here Comes the Setting Sun —

The Seasons Passing One by One;

Gather the Moments, Collect the

Dreams — REMEMBER THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE

Student Life

Deeply Rooted in "the Times of Our Lives" Are Memories of Celebrating the Good Ole Fifties . . .

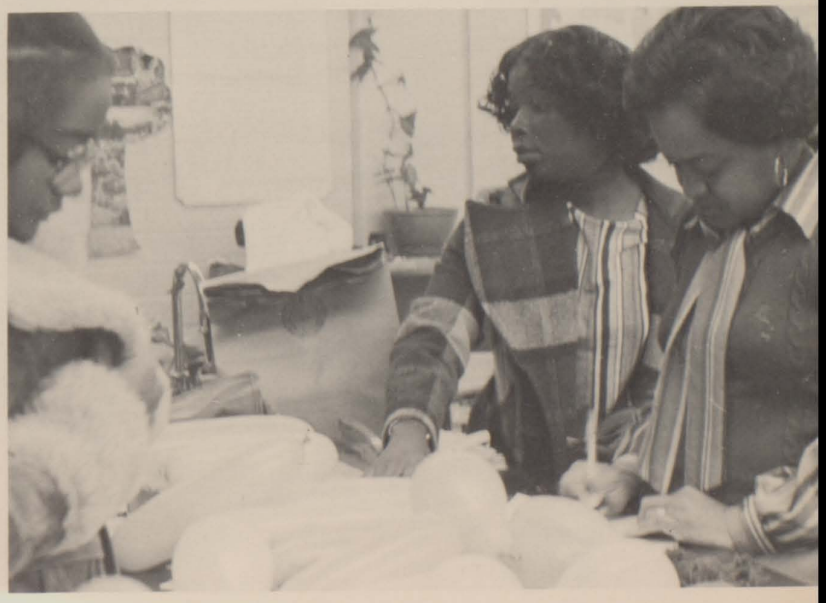

. . . And All the Activities

That Make Annual Sales a

SUCCESS!

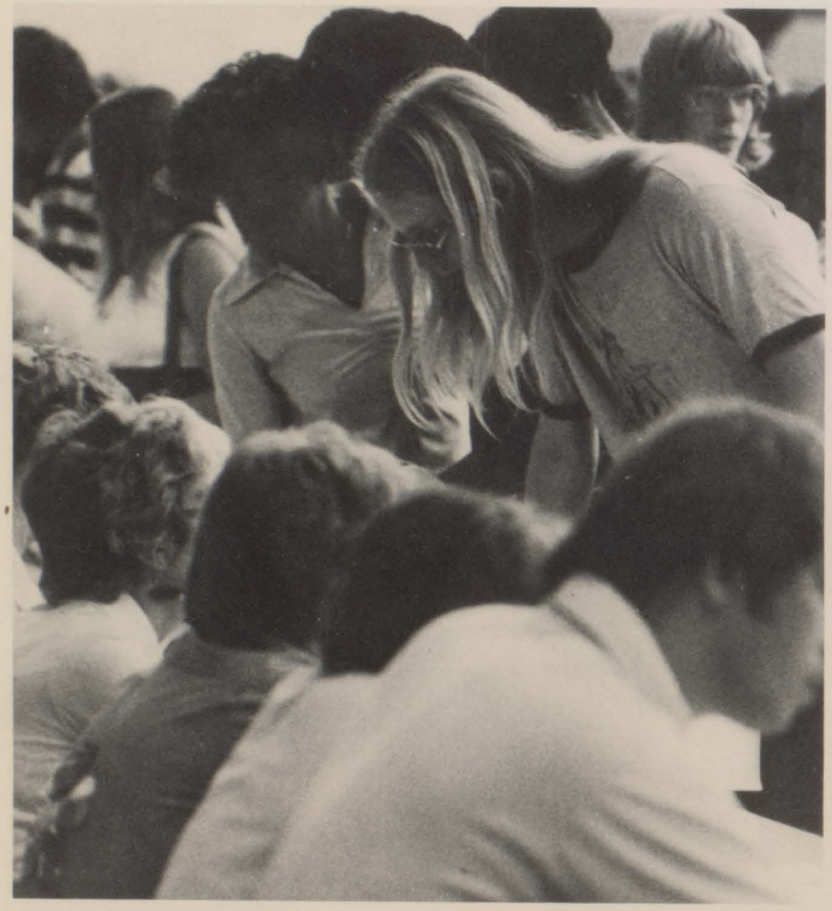

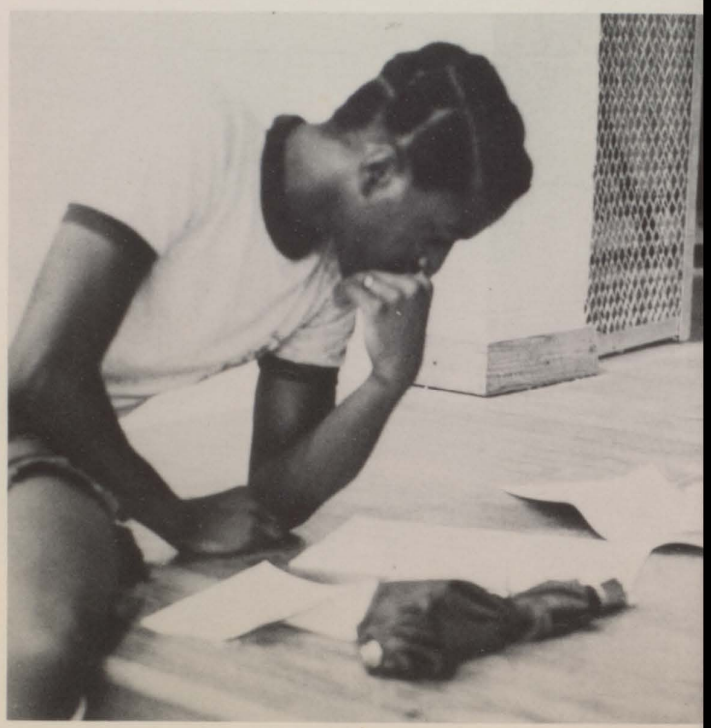

The Beginning of the Quarter . . .

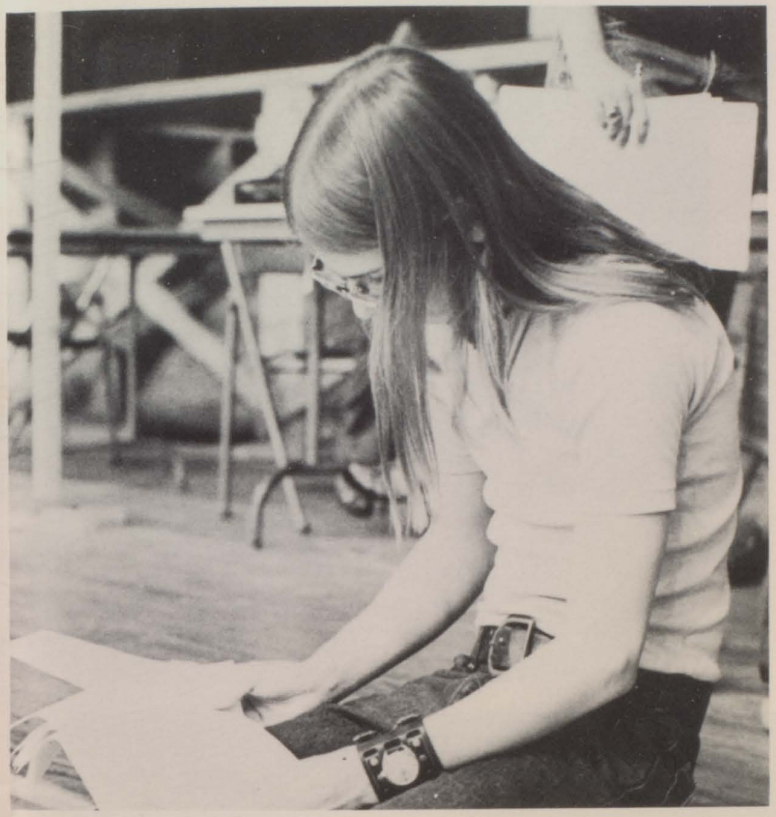

And It's That Time Again —

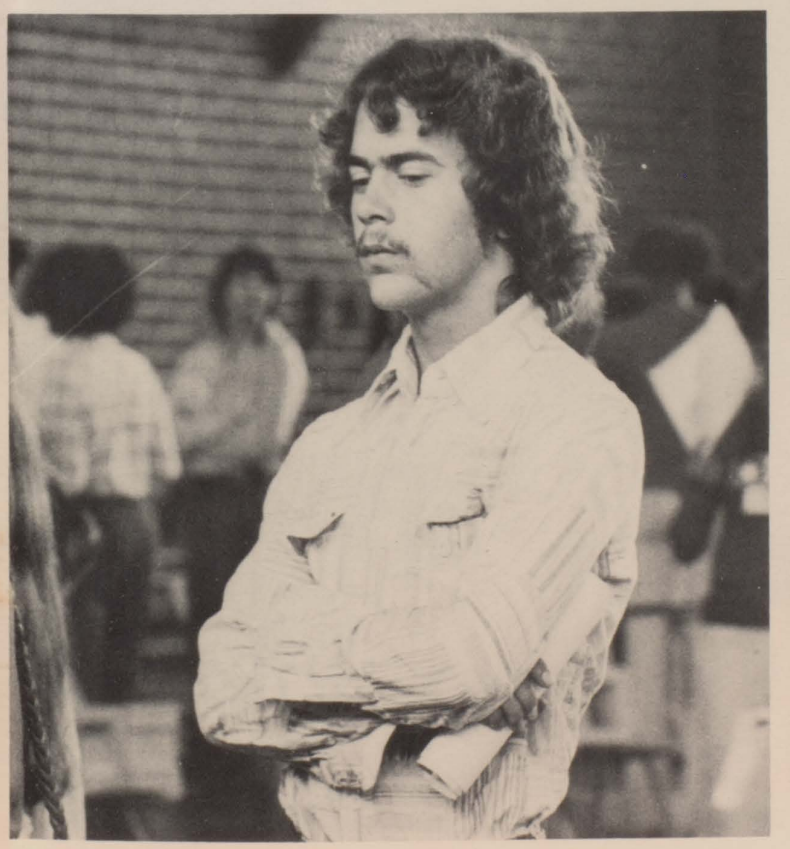

Lines, Conflicts, Singletons, and

Just Having It All Together.

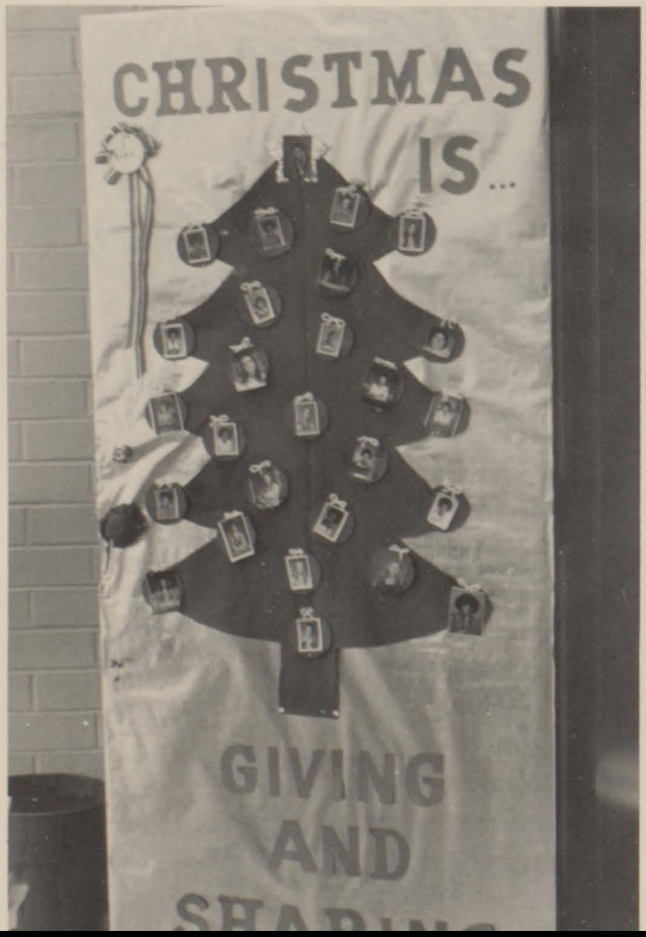

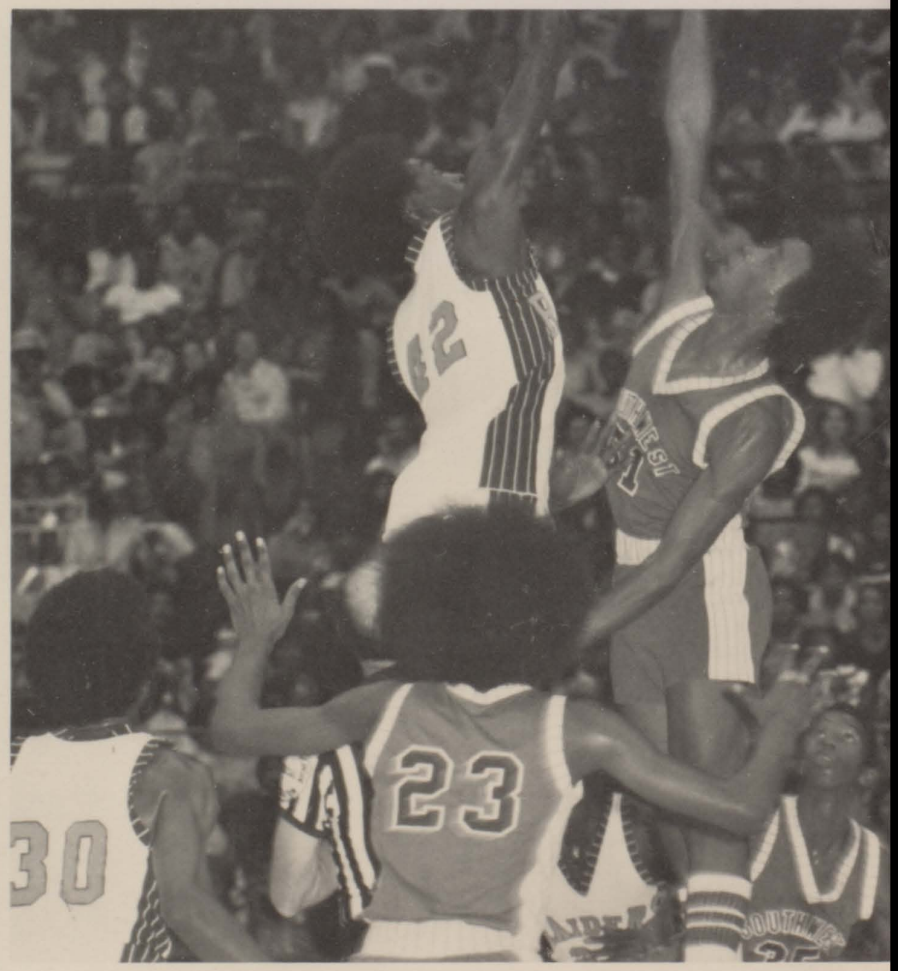

CHRISTMAS for the Patriots Is Winning

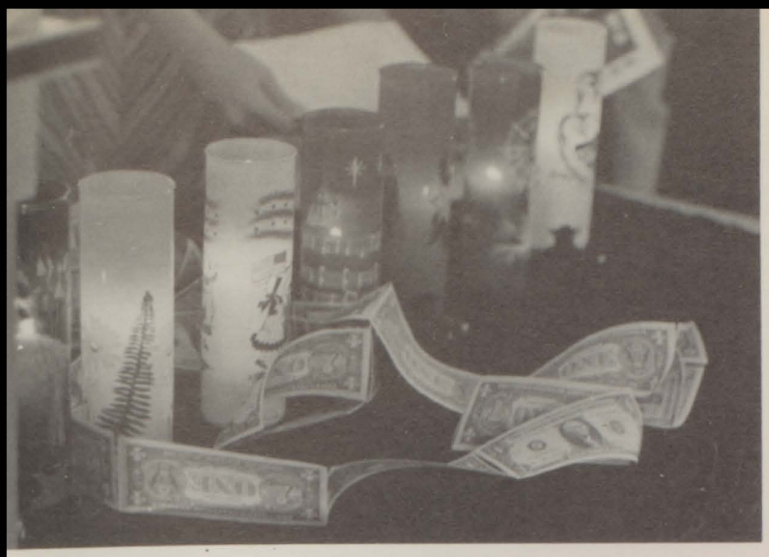

the Tom Porter Tournament, Winning

First Place in Door Decorations . . .

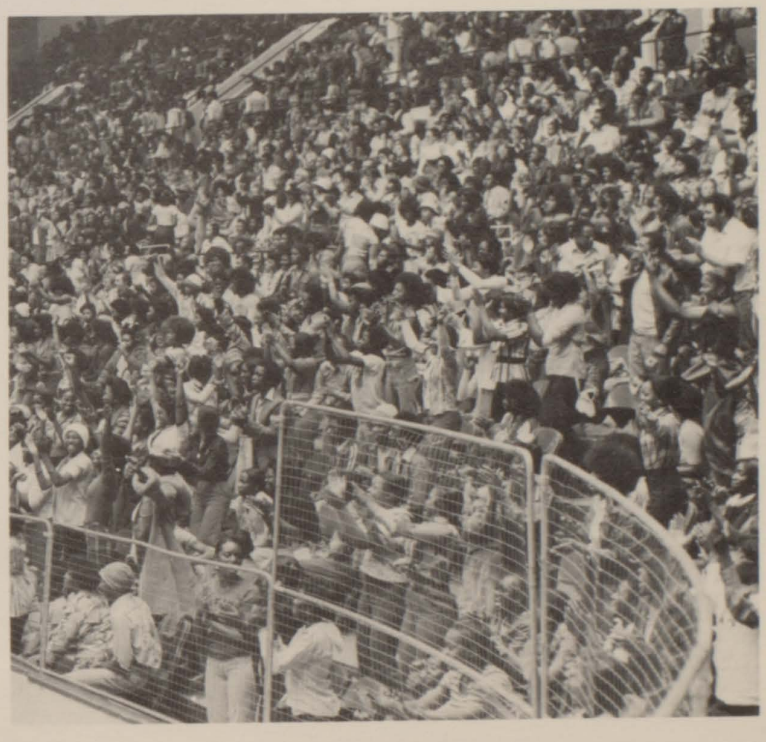

. . . Participating in Choral and Band Concerts, and Being a Part of Class Projects.

Homecoming 77 —

Crown for a Queen

and

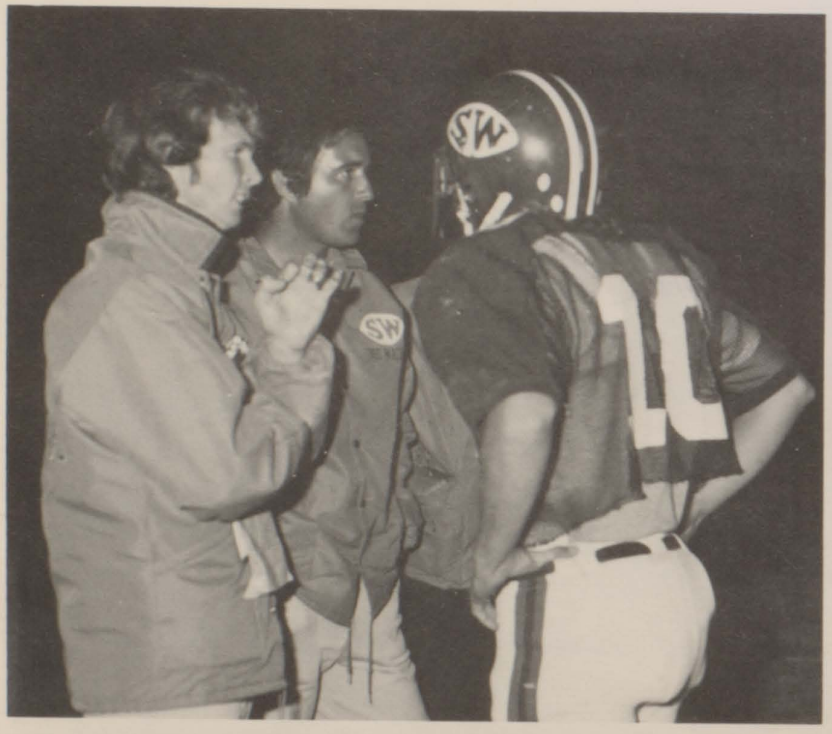

Victory for the Big

Red Machine —

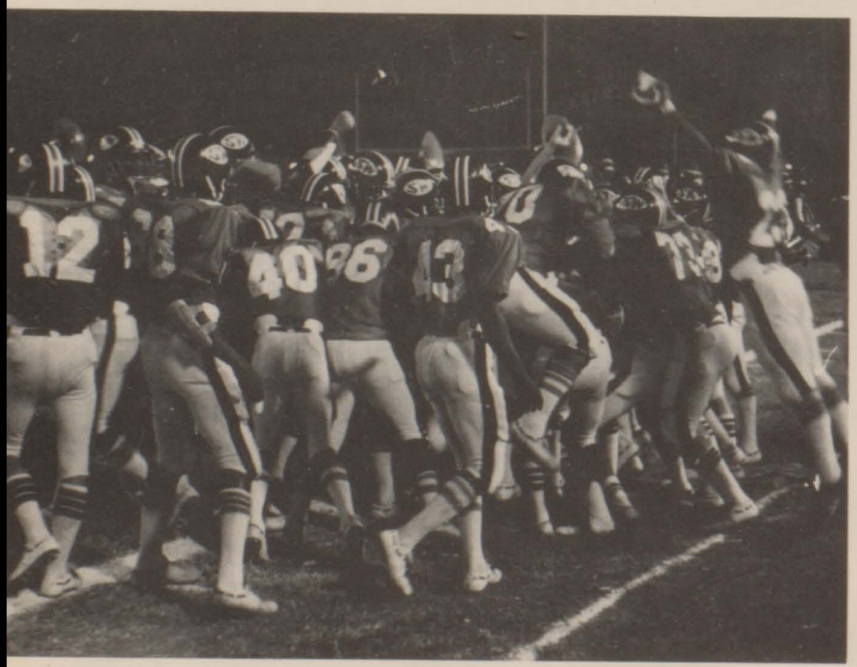

Remember?

Patriots 14 — Hawks — 6

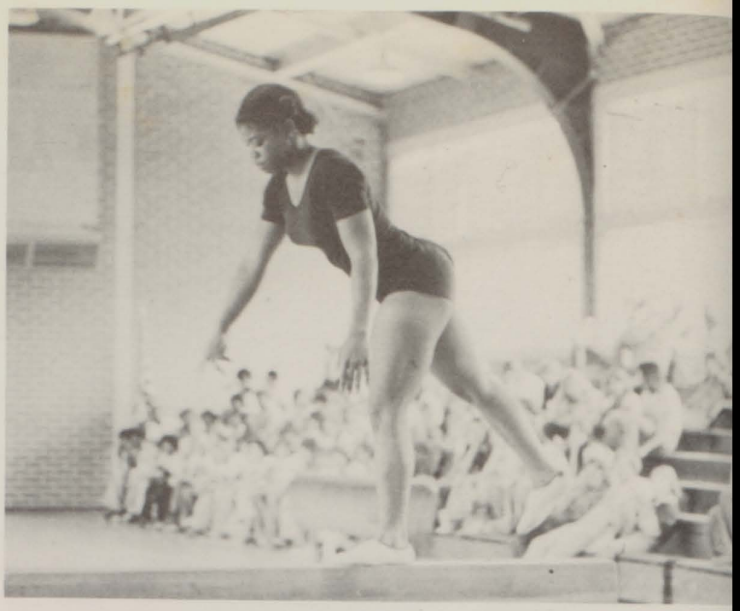

SPRING MADNESS . . .
making campaign speeches,
wrapping students in paper,
teachers riding bikes,
chasing the greased pig,
shaking your booty, and picnicking

The Laughter . . .
and the Good Times . . .
. . . We Will Remember!

That "Ole Patriot Spirit!!"
Senior's Got SPIRIT,
Junior's Got SPIRIT,
Sophomore's Got SPIRIT —
But Junior's Got That SPIRIT STICK!!

There are few times in the lives of Patriots
when the snow falls.
. . . "Let it snow, let it snow"

Memories of inspiring experiences — enlightening events —
distinguished personalities —
fantastic performances —
"make our lives sublime."

Choosing the appropriate attire, styling your hair to perfection, and being sure that your make-up is just right are but small parts of the anticipation of becoming Miss Homecoming — a time of your life you'll never forget.

. . . The band playing, the crowd applauding, and the stroll down the 50 yard line . . . then the silence is broken with the announcement . . .

Homecoming Queen 1977

Miss Tanya Crooms

Pictured left to right: Daryl Causey, Teresa Rhodes; Tanya Hill, Dickey Malone; Felecia Hampton, Jeff Malone; Connie Wilson, Dennis Ussery; Sherri Coleman, Frankie Hodges; Rodney Slocumb; Cindy Zeagler, Tony Garrett; Georgette McBride, Garry Pitts; Janet Starley, Kent Procter; Tanya Crooms, Monty Garrett.

Dull Classes?
NOT if you're a southwest patriot.

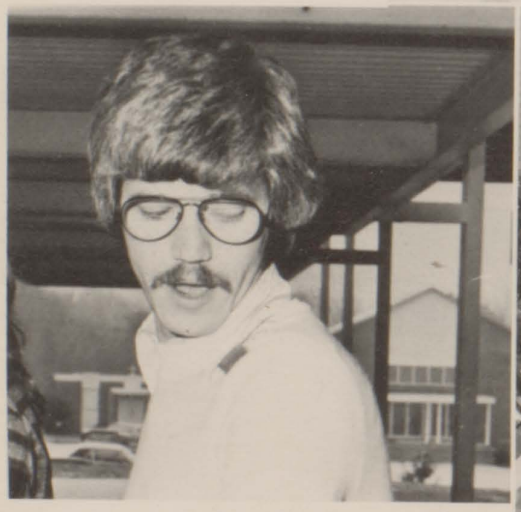

1. "And they say I'd talk to a statue if it would listen!"

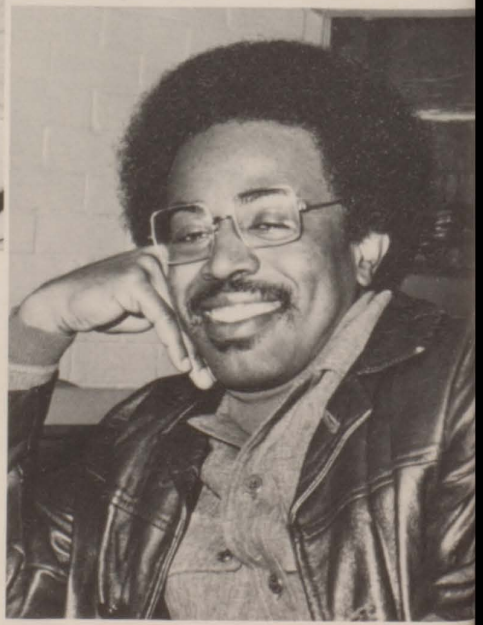

2. "Look Mom! No cavities."

3. "Sing . . . Sing a song"

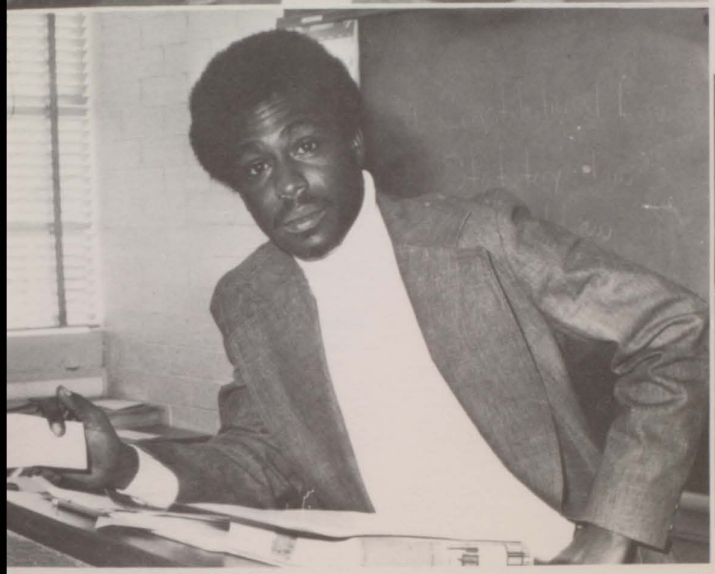

4. "Oh no! Dandruff's back!"
5. "Post One to Control. Can you read me?"
6. Breaker . . . Breaker!

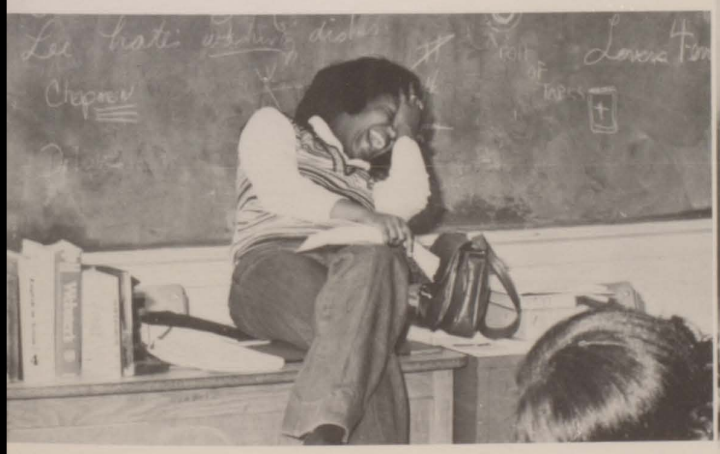

Teachers —
Caught in the act of being themselves

1. "You think that's funny, how about this? An 'F' for the day!"
3. "Can't we talk this thing over?"

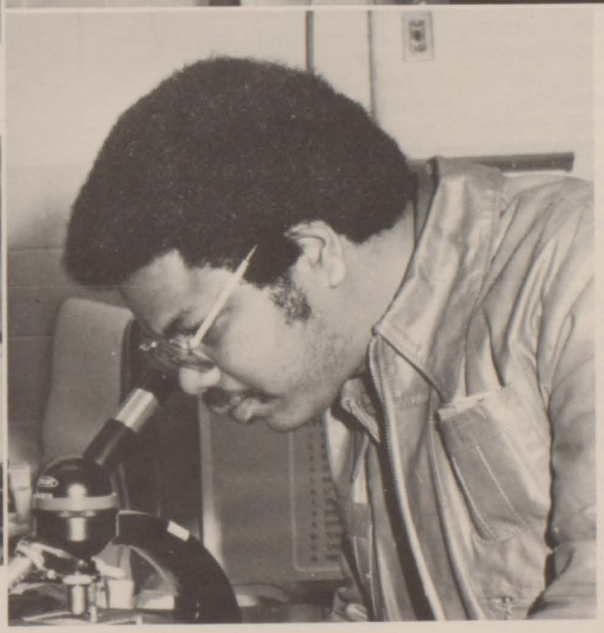

2. "You can't expect me to believe this?"

4. "These Pollock jokes are something else!"

5. Amazing! They do have brains
6. "Once upon a time . . ."

S-U-P-E-R
That's What Southwest Patriots Are!!!

High jumping, sharp shooting, rapid rebounding, and controlled defense are all marks of excellence that characterize the Patriots' Basketball Team — This year was no exception, as the team moved to 2nd place in the State AAA Regional Tournament.

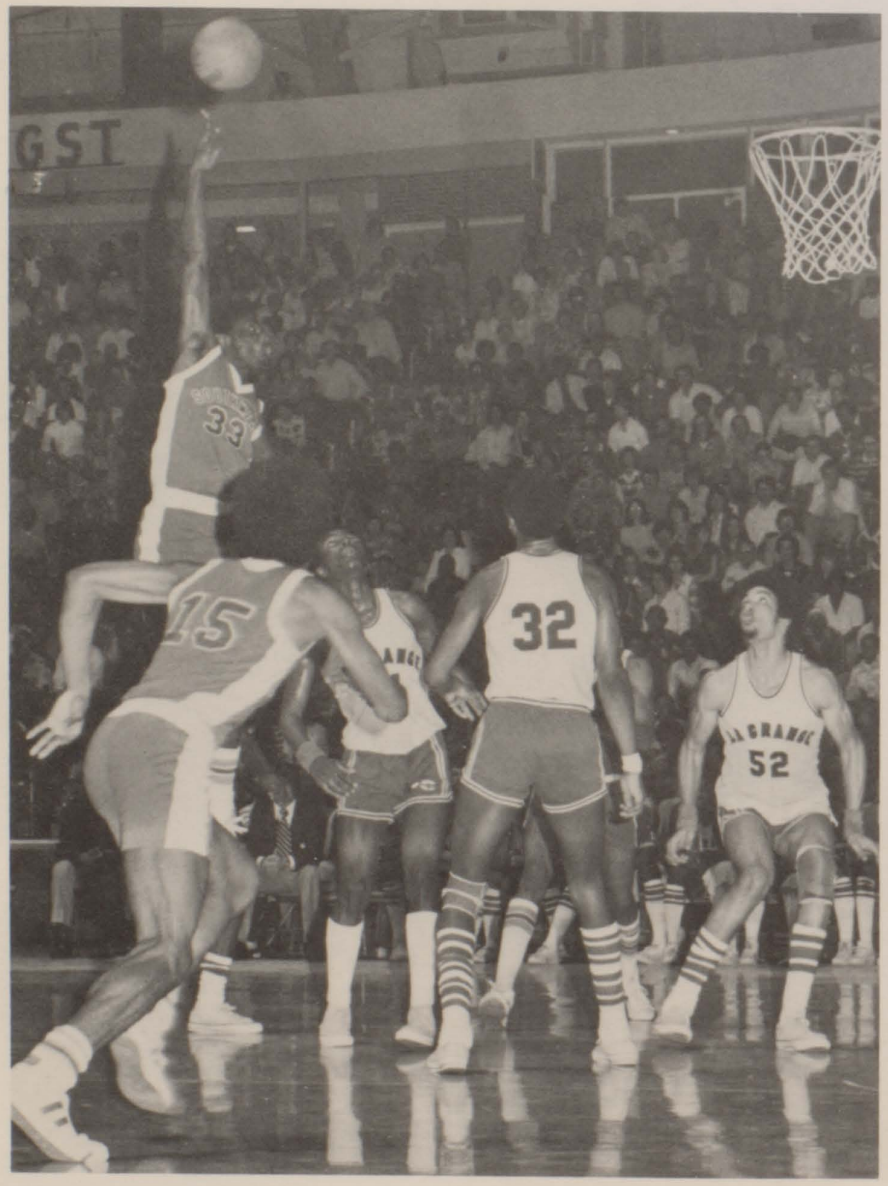

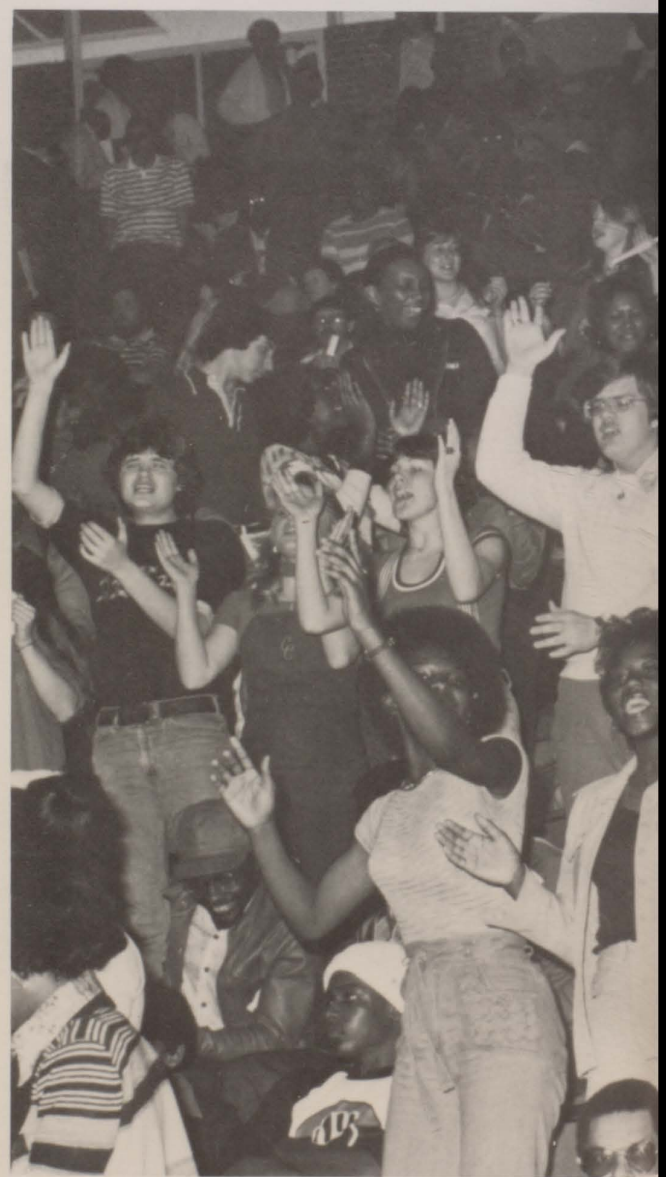

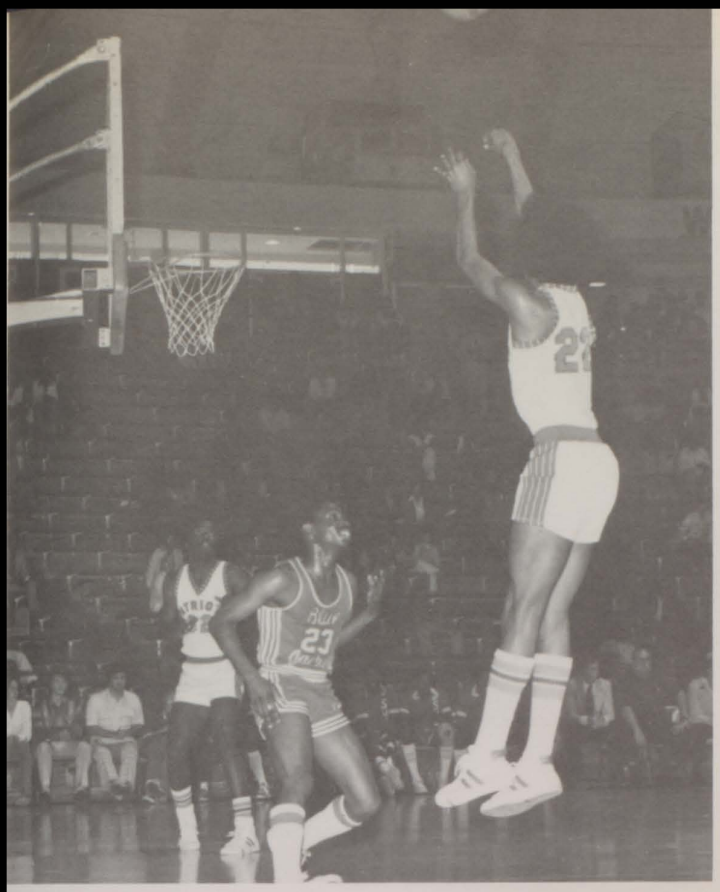

Technically, the difference in being # 1 and # 2 in the State 4AAA is One Point, but to a Patriot, Southwest is still # 1.

Nostalgia!!
How could a stroll down the fond memory lane of basketball be complete without reflecting on the GREATNESS of one

DONALD "DUCK" RICHARDSON?

Like a towering mountain peak dominates its surroundings, so does Coach Richardson stand immutable in the realm of coaching.

If the test of a leader is that he leaves behind him in other men the will, conviction, dedication and skill to excel, then "Duck" is indeed a LEADER.

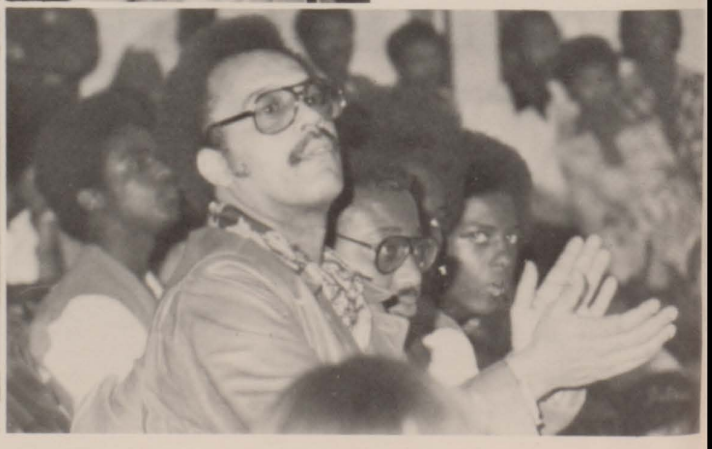

Accomplishments
Won 4-AAA State Tournament (2)
Won 2nd place in 4-AAA Tournament (1)
Won 3rd place in 4-AAA Tournament (1)
Won 4th place in 4-AAA Tournament (1)
Won Regional contest 5 consecutive times

Many of his exceptional players are in college basketball,
A GRAND SALUTE TO COACH RICHARDSON

"Get in the Winner's Circle. Go Navy."

Don Garlits—Professional Drag Racer

"Being a winner isn't just limited to racing. And even though I was first to top 200 mph in drag racing, I'm very much aware that success is important—no matter what field you're in. That's why I talk to young men and women about the Navy. If you've got what it takes, you can choose one from over 70 career opportunities. Opportunities that can put you in the winner's circle in fields like computers, electronics, communications . . . with job opportunities as wide as the imagination. From one end of the skill scale to another. Of course, you'll have to work hard. But that's what getting in the winner's circle is all about. There'll be benefits, too. Good pay. And a chance to see something of the world. And make your way in it, too. Right into the winner's circle. Get started now. See your local recruiter and find out what you qualify for even before you enlist."

Dear Mrs. Carter:

I am enclosing a copy of my letter to President Carter requesting that he comply with your request for an interview. I hope that the President will be able to work this out since I know he has indicated a desire to maintain contact with the people.

If I can be of service to you or your students in any way, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Billy L. Evans

Honorable James E. Carter
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20415

Dear Mr. President:

You have been sent a request by the Annual Staff of Southwest High School in Macon for a brief interview. Southwest High School is the largest high school in the nation and its student body is reflective of a broad cross-section of our mutual constituency.

Since you have occasion to return to Plains via Warner Robins and since it is your stated intention to keep in touch with the people rather than be completely buffered by your staff from the American public, I believe the interview would serve both purposes well.

If it is at all possible to accommodate this request, I would be most appreciative of your personal courtesy.

Mr. President, you make me proud to be from Georgia not simply because your home is Georgia but more so because of the overwhelming support I have heard for your conduct in office these first few weeks. While I have not been hesitant to voice my disagreement with individual positions you have taken, your overall actions receive my overwhelming support.

Thank you for your service to our Country.

With highest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

BILLY L. EVANS
Member of Congress

NOT if you are a subscriber to the SPIRIT OF '77, for we have captured in these pages the best of times — the worst of times and the times in between.

We have cheerfully accepted the challenge that goes into the production of a yearbook. With quiet dignity and unselfish devotion, we have given of ourselves in order that your memories will not be dimmed nor faded, but that you will be able to catch glimpses of the times of your lives in THE SPIRIT OF '77.
